

Bumbrella is dedicated to creating modern, solution-oriented underpinnings for the fashion-forward woman. Introducing a modern mini slip with the convenience of a built-in panty called bumbrella.

CHALLENGE

As the owner of CiCi Soliel, the maker of Bumbrella no-squeeze mini panty/slip combination, Tara Gallagher professes that she's "not a numbers person." Running her business by herself, there are many things that demand her attention. So when she received a notice regarding a missing sales tax report from the state of New York, Tara immediately reached out for help.

"I run my business by myself, so there are so many things to think about. I didn't know the first thing about tax."

THE SOLUTION & RESULT

One call to Taxify calmed her fears and helped Tara understand how to catch up in New York, as well as how to correctly file in her other filing states. Instead of spending hours reading tax codes herself, the friendly experts at Taxify explained the process and reassured Tara.

Taxify now gives Tara the freedom to focus on running her business and not worry about sales tax. With effortless, automated filing in all 50 states, Taxify simplifies Tara's workload while keeping her in compliance.
